

NY Waterway is seeking a Health, Safety and Environmental (EH&S) Compliance Trainer. This is a full-time position Monday through Friday with flexible hours. Typical hours would be 0830 – 1700 however, may require some early mornings and later evenings to visit employees on different shifts. Accidents and incidents may require weekend availability. Local travel to ferry ports will be involved.

Job Duties

New Hire Orientation, oversight, and documentation of training

Establishment of a training program for existing and ongoing training. Partner with Human Resources to track training programs for each employee.

Daily safety inspection of the maintenance facility

Inspection of compliance with safety guidelines for employees

Periodic safety inspections of facilities

Periodic risk assessment of facilities

Periodic Risk assessment of operations

Follow up on repair orders and risks internally

Investigation of incidents or accidents. Post incidents reports, risks, and corrective actions

Communication with Insurance and Third-Party claims firms on incidents/accidents

Job Type: Full-time

Pay: $75,000.00 - $80,000.00 per year

This position requires driving to NY Waterways ferry terminals/boats which can be as North as Newburgh, NY and as South as Belford, NJ.

Submit to and successfully pass a comprehensive background check, alcohol and drug tests as mandated by the USCG including but not limited to pre-employment, random, reasonable suspicion, and post-accident/incident testing.

Benefits:

- Health insurance
- Dental insurance
- Retirement plan
- Paid time off
- Professional development assistance

When applying please indicate the position applying for. EOE

If you are interested in applying for the position, please send resume to melissa@nywaterway.com or fax: 201-223-7865.