NY WATERWAY FERRY SERVICE RETURNS TO PORT LIBERTE THIS AUGUST AND WILL OFFER RESIDENTS DISCOUNTED FARES

JERSEY CITY, NJ—NY Waterway today announced the restoration of its Port Liberte ferry service beginning Monday, August 1. The ferries will offer direct service from the Port Liberte development in Jersey City to Paulus Hook and Wall Street, with connecting service to World Financial Center and Midtown.

The route has been suspended since 2020 due to the pandemic. NY Waterway is restarting service on a trial basis between August and October, and will assess future service based on ridership.

As part of the relaunch, NY Waterway will offer Port Liberte residents a 10 percent discount on tickets and passes, available through the Port Liberte Homeowners Association. NY Waterway and the Homeowners Association will work together to promote the discount directly to qualifying residents, who can then purchase discounted tickets and passes through the NY Waterway app.

Ticket pricing:

Ticket Type	Regular Rate	Resident Rate
1-Way Adult	$13.00	$11.70
1-Way Child (6-11)	$8.75	$7.90
1-Way Senior	$9.75	$8.80
10-Trip	$120.00	$108.00
Monthly	$415.50	$374.00
30-Day Pass	$427.00	$384.30

Ferries from Port Liberte will stop at Paulus Hook in Jersey City and proceed to Pier 11/Wall Street. Riders can transfer at Paulus Hook for free connecting service to World Financial Center and Midtown.
